Affiliate Members shall have neither voting rights nor the right to hold elected office.

Code Of Ethics – As a Member of the Canadian Institute of Public Health Inspectors, we acknowledge:

- That we have an obligation to the sciences and arts for the advancement of public health. We will uphold the standards of our profession, continually search for truths, and disseminate our findings; and we will strive to keep fully informed of the developments in the field of Public Health.
• That we have an obligation to the public whose trust we hold and we will endeavour, to the best of our ability, to guard their interests honestly and wisely. We will be loyal to the government division or industry by which we are retained.
• That the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of health is one of the fundamental rights of every human being without distinction of race, religion, political belief, economic or social condition.
• That being loyal to our profession, we will uphold the constitution and By-laws of the Canadian Institute of Public Health Inspectors and will, at all times, conduct ourselves in a manner worthy of our profession.

I have read the above code and support joining as a Corporate/Affiliate member. The goals of our organization complement those found in the aforementioned code.
